

General Terms and Conditions for Dutch Beatbox Battle 2023

- Participants must reside in the Netherlands.
- Participants must possess a valid form of identification.
- Participants must be eighteen years of age or older or, in the case of a minor participant, have the consent of their parents/guardians or other responsible individuals.
- Participants must report to the event organizers on the day of the event no later than 12:00. Participants who arrive late cannot be guaranteed a spot in the elimination round.
- For participants in the loop station category: they must bring their own equipment (loop station, microphone, and cable).
- There is no limit to the number of entries for Dutch Beatbox Battle.
- Correspondence regarding the results of Dutch Beatbox Battle 2023 is not permitted.
- Participants agree to make time for any post-event activities that Dutch Beatbox Battle undertakes with the winners.
- Participants must remain on-site until the awards ceremony, otherwise participation may be denied.
- Dutch Beatbox Battle reserves the right to refuse participation and/or remove a participant from the competition without having to provide a reason.
- Participants who arrive late and can no longer participate or who ultimately do not participate in the event must purchase a ticket for the event.
- Participants agree to the use of any form of recorded media by Dutch Beatbox Battle and related parties.
- Participants who originally come from another country and/or partly live in another country are allowed to participate. After participating, they are obliged to represent the Netherlands regarding beatboxing until the next world championship. They are not allowed to represent other countries in any kind of beatbox battle. If they still participate in another national championship, they may never represent the Netherlands again and/or any titles can be taken away.
- Participants who have not completed a quitclaim form cannot participate in Dutch Beatbox Battle 2023.
- Participants who have not agreed to the general terms and conditions cannot participate in Dutch Beatbox Battle 2023.
- Dutch Beatbox Battle is a protected trademark registered under Chamber of Commerce number 56621256.
- These terms and conditions are subject to Dutch law.

